

Do you want Raven Tales in your school for a day?

Internationally renowned artist Winadzi aka Simon Daniel James, co-creator of the Multi-Award winning Raven Tales series has been attending schools from Pre-school to university for many years.

Raven Tales has been seen in over 40 countries to date and licensed for broadcast in New Zealand/Australia, United States, France, Germany and of course Canada on the APTN Aboriginal Peoples Television Network. Raven Tales has completed 26 episodes of 30 minutes entertaining episodes for you to view and 26 basic readers for you to read.

Winadzi has been bringing Raven Tales to schools and school districts since 2005 and quite often works an entire school district moving from school to school for morning and afternoon presentation.

This high quality educational yet entertaining series has been licensed in the British Columbia School system for educational purposes since 2008. Raven Tales DVDs and readers are available for purchase through our website or from Simon when he arrives.

What is included and what does it cost?

- The creator of Raven Tales present for questions and lecturing all the while catering to the age of his audience
- 26 episode presentation to choose from on your screen or my own 60 inch screen
- I supply my own projector if needed and can bring my own audio of necessary
- Years of experience lecturing and educating about storytelling and animation
- Costs are $300 for a half day or $600 for a full day presentation at your school
- $.50 per Km travel expenses plus ferry if necessary and accommodation if required

Please contact Simon Daniel James 778-233-7032 or raventales@shaw.ca
for more information

Please note: the telephone number above is long distance.